

WIPE OUT ILLICIT CONDUCT IN MASSAGE AT LOCAL ESTABLISHMENTS!

NEW FOR 2019!

Law and Code Enforcement for massage businesses that operate as a subterfuge for prostitution can be a real challenge. We at the California Massage Therapy Council (CAMTC) get it. Your goal to eliminate this problem is our goal. CAMTC's priority is to work together with local law and code enforcement agencies by offering a no-cost training that includes game changing strategies.

By coordinating law and code enforcement protocols with CAMTC's denial and disciplinary programs, you can make a real impact on public safety in your community. Rick McElroy has offered trainings to more than 1,700 officers throughout California and 580 agencies including ICE, DHS, FBI and DOJ.

Some topics covered in this training:

- Recent Changes Regarding Massage Therapy Laws
- New Basis for Denial/Discipline
- Existing Basis for Denial/Discipline
- Suspensions
- Revocations and Other Forms of Discipline
- Evidence Issues
- Sexual Assaults

CAMTC LAW & CODE ENFORCEMENT TRAINING

- PSD Disciplinary Advantages For Law and Code Enforcement Officers
- How CAMTC Can Help You
- Filing a Complaint with CAMTC Against an Applicant or Certificate Holder
- Questions and Answers

Detective III Rick McElroy, Retired, is a 32-year veteran with LAPD, including 28 years assigned to citywide vice enforcement.

As Director of the CAMTC Professional Standards Division, Rick oversees background investigations

as well as CAMTC's disciplinary process.

For more information about a no-cost training in your local area in California contact Rick at:

mcelroy@camtc.org • 805.390.0397
www.camtc.org/cpa-strategic-partners

- SIMPLE
- PROVEN
- EFFECTIVE

www.camtc.org