

CALIFORNIA MASSAGE THERAPY COUNCIL

CAMTC LAW & CODE ENFORCEMENT TRAINING

CAMTC's priority is to work together with local law & code enforcement agencies to curtail the use of massage as a subterfuge for prostitution. Our goal is to allow the public to benefit from the services of certified therapeutic massage professionals who provide much needed care to people in California. Some topics covered by Rick McElroy in this training session include:

- Recent Changes Regarding Massage Therapy Laws
- New Basis for Denial/Discipline
- Existing Basis for Denial/Discipline
- Suspensions
- Revocations and Other Forms of Discipline
- Evidence Issues
- Disciplinary Advantages for Cops - How CAMTC Can Help You
- Sexual Assaults
- Filing a Complaint with CAMTC Against an Applicant or Certificate Holder
- Are You Connected?
- Questions and Answers

Detective III Rick McElroy, Retired, is a 32-year veteran with LAPD, including 28 years assigned to citywide vice enforcement.

Currently, Rick serves as CAMTC Director of Law & Code Enforcement Relations.

Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training

POST Certified Training Presented by Rick McElroy

POST Course Number: 22168

Massage Establishments: Powerful Tools
To Eradicate Illicit Conduct

Attend a No-Cost 2-hour POST Certified Training via Zoom by contacting:

Rick McElroy: rmcelroy@camtc.org
www.camtc.org/cpca-strategic-partners